When should I consider doing a social media protection analysis?

29 — When developing an in-depth understanding of online/offline risks occurring through social media to be able to design prevention or response models

40 — When identifying existing digital protection threats & risks (online or off) in order to develop protection-sensitive use of social media programming
Global Protection Cluster

What types of program/interventions can be designed following a social media protection analysis?

A. Developing partnerships with fact checkers to address online misinformation	B. Providing digital literacy training to key stakeholders; Providing legal assistance to victims of online gendered abuse	C. As humanitarian protection actors, we have a duty of care to put in place measures & systems to avoid risks related to social media
30	33	48

Can you give one example of a digital threats and how you mitigate this?
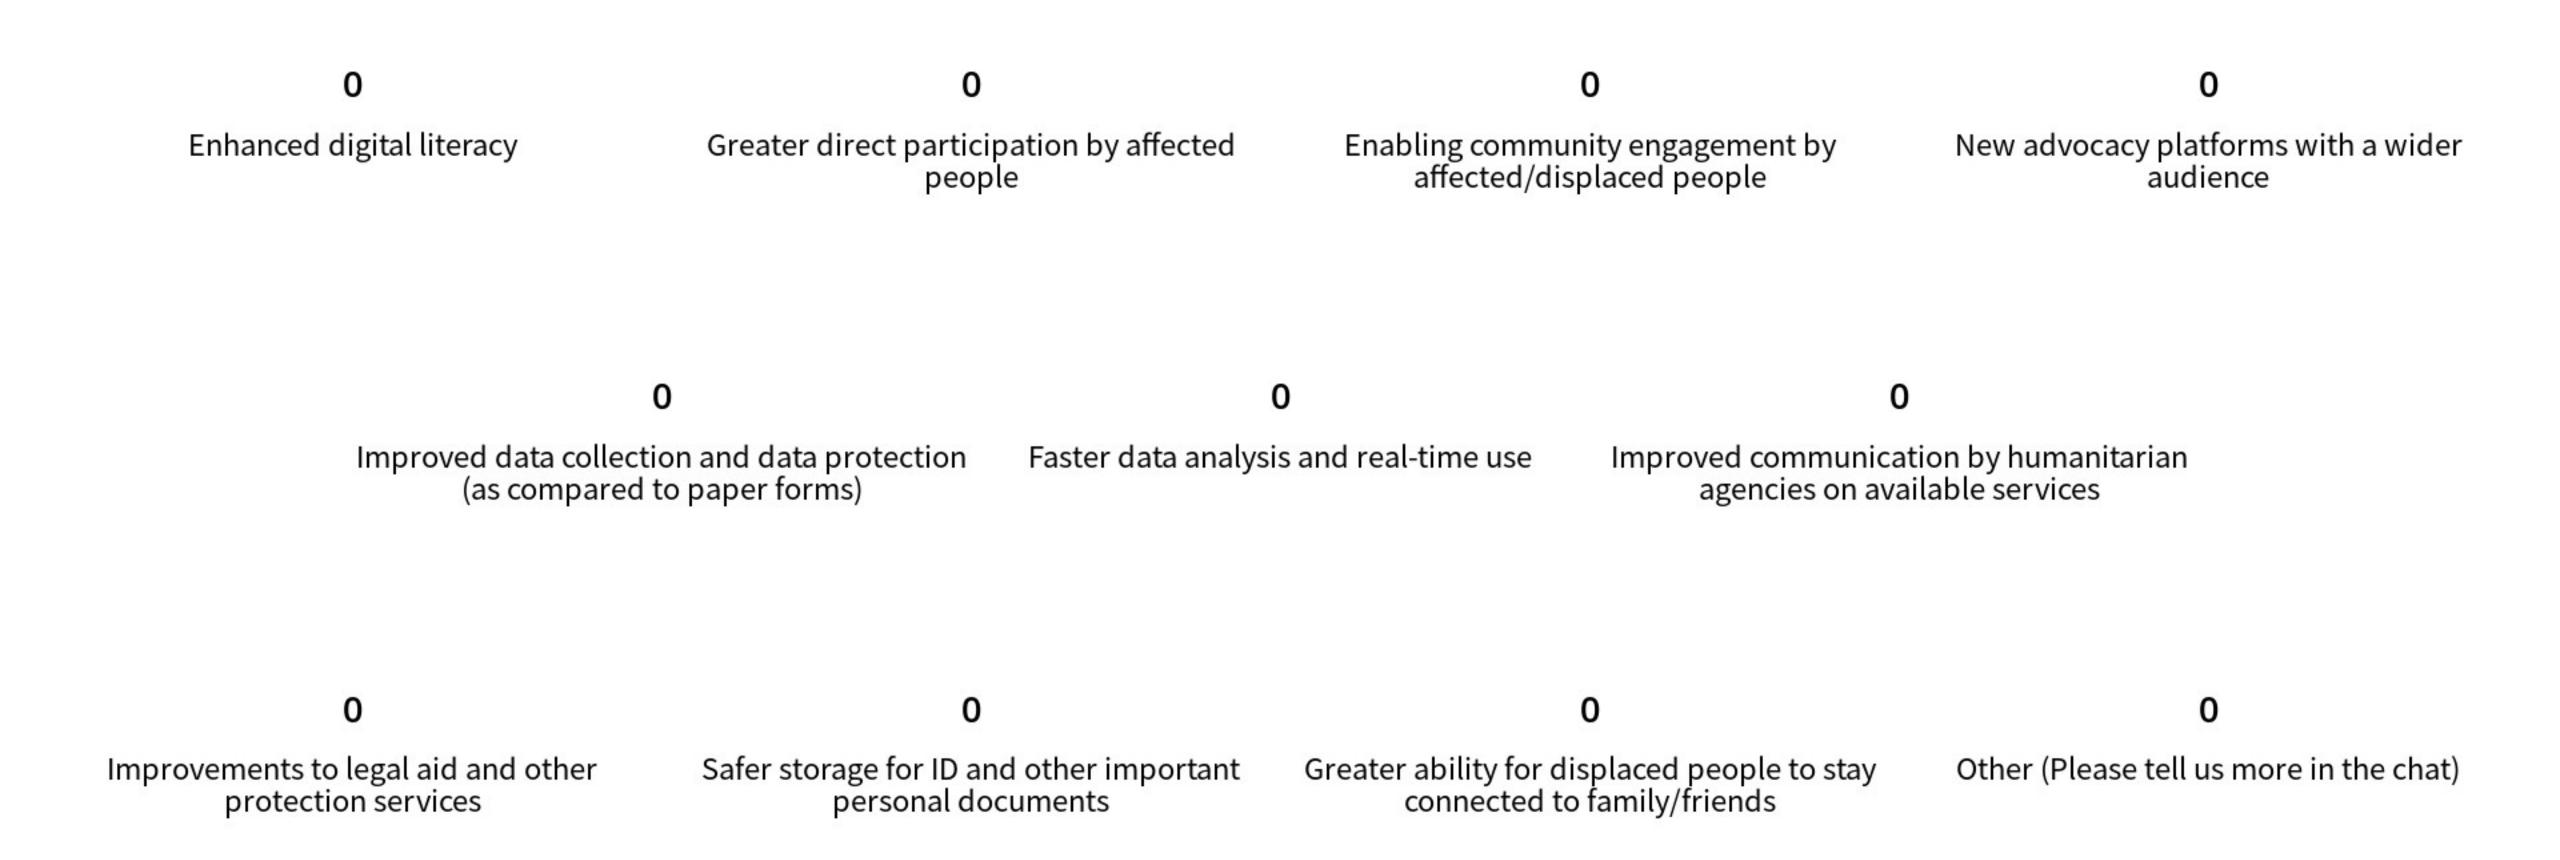

Given your experiences and the presentations today, what are the top three protection benefits we can gain from digitizing access?

0
Enhanced digital literacy

0
Greater direct participation by affected people

0
Enabling community engagement by affected/displaced people

0
New advocacy platforms with a wider audience

0
Improved data collection and data protection (as compared to paper forms)

0
Faster data analysis and real-time use

0
Improved communication by humanitarian agencies on available services

0
Improvements to legal aid and other protection services

0
Safer storage for ID and other important personal documents

0
Greater ability for displaced people to stay connected to family/friends

0
Other (Please tell us more in the chat)

Global Protection Cluster

What is the most serious protection risk(s) related to digital access?

0

Unauthorized access to sensitive information by bad actors

0

Easier to spread disinformation/misinformation.

0

Enabling hate speech and other digital threats

0

Easier for governments or others to monitor/track people

0

Other (Please tell us more in the chat)

Global Protection Cluster

Ask me anything

9 questions
0 upvotes

Global Protection Cluster